

ALGEBRAIC ANALYSIS OF TWO-TERMINAL NETWORKS

EDUARDO SÁENZ-DE-CABEZÓN AND HENRY P. WYNN

ABSTRACT. To every coherent system, in particular a network, one can associate a monomial ideal such that the algebraic properties of this ideal give information on the network properties. We use techniques of combinatorial commutative algebra to adress the problems of computing the reliability of a network and measuring the importance of a given component of a network.

Universidad de La Rioja

E-mail address: `eduardo.saenz-de-cabazon@unirioja.es`

London School of Economics

E-mail address: `H.Wynn@lse.ac.uk`